

Roland Garros

Stade Roland Garros, Paris, France

May 22-26, 2011

It doesn't get any better than springtime in Paris, enjoying sobriety, tennis and all the fabulous sights. We'll stay on the banks of the Seine, a short walk to the Eiffel Tower. It's also close to our very favorite English-speaking meetings. We'll have breakfast fellowship, then those who wish can join us for a noon meeting before taking the Metro out to Roland Garros. Extra days mean extra sightseeing, fine dining and enjoying all that is great about Paris. This is the "sobriety and tennis retreat" that inspired the concept of Sobriety Sports Tours.
